

Minor in Sports Management

The Minor in Sports Management, offered through the Greehey School of Business at St. Mary's University, is open to Exercise and Sport Science majors interested in gaining a deeper understanding of the sports management profession.

The minor provides Exercise and Sports Science students with a foundation of knowledge on the sports industry, including professional, amateur, for-profit and nonprofit sports entertainment, sporting goods and services, and sports management ethics.

San Antonio is home to several professional major and minor league sports teams including the NBA's five-time champion San Antonio Spurs, the Double-A's San Antonio Missions and the United Soccer League's San Antonio FC.
