

Minor in Education Studies

This minor will allow students to gain knowledge and field-based experience in teaching at the elementary, middle or high school level without having to do student-teaching and passing the state teacher certification exams, two of the requirements to acquire a Texas teaching certificate. This minor will qualify students to teach in private schools, including parochial schools.

Contact

Angeli Willson (awillson@stmarytx.edu), Ph.D. (dhiggins@stmarytx.edu)

Click on the course number to view course title and description.

Code	Title	Semester Hours
Requirements for the minor
ED 2330	Teaching Diverse Populations	3
ED 3301	The American Elementary School	3
or ED 3302	The American Secondary School
ED 3316	Child Development and Learning in the School Setting	3
or ED 3361	Adolescent Development in the School Setting
ED 3321	Instructional Planning, Assessment and Evaluation	3
ED 3355	Educational Technology	3
Total Semester Hours		15